

A photograph of a volcano erupting, with a thick, billowing plume of ash and smoke rising into the sky. The volcano's dark, rocky slopes are visible in the foreground, and the surrounding landscape is hazy. The text is overlaid on the image in various colors and fonts.

Al ver la furia
del volcán
me oculté
bajo una flor

Pero Jesús
me protegió
con un rocío
celestial

Me estremecí
con el temblor
y dije:
aquí voy a morir
